“Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus”

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING THREE – LSB page 184
+ In Nomine Jesu +

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Jeremiah 1:4-10

⁴ Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying:

⁵ “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
Before you were born I sanctified you;
I ordained you a prophet to the nations.”

⁶ Then said I:

“Ah, Lord God!

Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth.”

⁷ But the Lord said to me:

“Do not say, ‘I am a youth,’
For you shall go to all to whom I send you,
And whatever I command you, you shall speak.

⁸ Do not be afraid of their faces,
For I am with you to deliver you,” says the Lord.

⁹ Then the Lord put forth His hand and touched my mouth, and the Lord said to me:
“Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

¹⁰ See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms,
To root out and to pull down,
To destroy and to throw down,
To build and to plant.”

THE EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ² And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³ And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. ⁴ Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; ⁵ does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; ⁶ does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; ⁷ bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸ Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰ But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. ¹² For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. ¹³ And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 4:31-44

³¹ Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths. ³² And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. ³³ Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴ saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!" ³⁵ But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him. ³⁶ Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." ³⁷ And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region. ³⁸ Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they made request of Him concerning her. ³⁹ So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them. ⁴⁰ When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. ⁴¹ And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" And He, rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ. ⁴² Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them; ⁴³ but He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent." ⁴⁴ And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

Question: What's an Awesome Way to Spend an Evening?
Answer: Quiz Night in Brenham!

The Bethlehem Lutheran Church Youth League, in conjunction with the Grace Lutheran Church Youth League in Brenham, would like to invite you to the 2nd Annual Quiz Night on Friday, February 7th, at the American Legion Post 48 in Brenham. The night will begin at 5:30pm and finish at 9pm.

For those who have never been to a quiz night event, let me explain. The evening will consist of 10 rounds of trivia. Questions are answered by teams on the forms provided. The forms are collected and tabulated after each round, and team standings will be announced during the evening. Each round will have a different focus to test your overall trivia knowledge. Prizes will be awarded to the winners throughout the night after each round. At the end of the evening, a Quiz Night Champion will be crowned. Will your team be proven the smartest in Washington County? Will the trophy go to Grace or Bethlehem? Sign up to find out!

LAST CHANCE - Note from the Trustees... There is not much left in the 2 sheds on the Pahmiyer property, so this is your last chance to get stuff out before the Trustees demolish the sheds. Please reach out to Jimmie Maurer or other members of the Trustees.

Teachers Needed: Looking for ADVENTURE and/or EXCITEMENT, become a Sunday School teacher, helper or substitute. Over the last few years, the number of Sunday School students has increased and help is needed. If you are interested in helping, contact Casey Voskamp, Brian Markwardt or Derek Poehlmann.

Media publications by Grace pastors are posted on our website. Just go to <https://www.glcsbren.org/media> and you'll find plenty of theological content for your listening and watching pleasure. It's a great gift to those looking for a dose of confessional theology during the busy week.

Looking for the church calendar? Last week's bulletin? Can't remember a church officer you need to contact? Want to watch a church service? Listen to a podcast? Friends in Christ, check out the website at www.glcsbren.org. It has all these things and more for the benefit of God's blessed people at Grace and also those looking to see what Grace Lutheran Church is about.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Luke 2:24 – “[They went] to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.’” Throughout the Old and New Testaments, God gives us the pattern of proportional giving. If you look at Leviticus 12, you'll see that the sacrifice for purification was either a lamb or a pair of birds if the family had no means to buy a lamb. God calls us to give in proportion to how He has blessed us — and of course Jesus sets the pattern by giving not only a portion, but His all.

Grace Lutheran School 2025 Spring Gala

The PTL invites you to the annual Spring Gala – Denim and Diamonds! Get ready for a fun night of good food, fellowship, auctions and live music featuring Robert Zientek & band. The money raised each year allows PTL to fund the many events and programs that GLS has throughout the school year. It also allows us to show appreciation to our dedicated teachers and staff and fund needs as they arise. Two items of priority for this year are security upgrades for the school and updating the Pre-K bathrooms and the girls/boys locker rooms.

When and Where:

Saturday, March 29, 2025

5:00pm at the Brenham Fireman's Training Center

Invitations have been delivered to church member boxes and tickets are on sale now. Tickets will be available in the school office through March 14th. We will also be selling tickets after service through Sunday, March 9th.

If purchasing a Sponsor Table, please turn in your form with payment by February 13th. Sponsor packets are available in the narthex and the school office. Please note, this year's seating options will be like last year: either sponsor tables or general seating.

We are also needing items for both the live and silent auctions! Items we are looking for include: Vacation home stays, Fishing or hunting trips, Themed dinners, Sports and outdoor items, Gift cards, Electronics, Tickets to events, Goods and services, Home décor, and more!

For Sponsor questions, please contact:

Ashley Jahnke at 979-277-4897 or ashley@hoddere.com

For Auction questions, please contact:

Brittany Hartfield at 361-550-5040 or britt0711@gmail.com

Thank you for your support of the school and PTL. We can't wait to see you at this year's Gala!

The piano in the choir loft is reaching its end, and so a replacement instrument is being suggested in a Yamaha Clavinova CVP-909. It's quality and sound are beyond dispute, but funds are needed for the purchase. Contributions can be made to the "music fund" should you wish to help in getting this exceptional instrument. For further questions, please contact Pastor Kunkel.

You Have a Place at Grace

“IN You, O LORD, I put my trust; Let me never be put to shame” (Psalm 71:6).

When we think about these words, excuses for self-righteousness wither away. Worry alone shows our trust in the wrong things, otherwise we wouldn't worry. Our trust in God would bring ease and we'd be fine all our days. Clearly this isn't the case, as even faithful saints struggle between faith and doubt, trust and despair. The theological meaning behind all this resides in the phrase simul justus et peccatur, “simultaneously saint and sinner.” Never does spiritual combat cease this side of heaven. We carry the flesh and it's a heavy burden.

The Psalmist was no stranger to sin. He knew well the importance of seeking salvation outside of himself when He cried “save me, O God! For the waters have come up to my neck” (Psalm 69:1). We know the feeling. The waters are at the chin, getting into the mouth, choking is coming, drowning, imminent. Faith cries to God and He is swift to save in His promise that never ends. The Gospel is good news faith apprehends. Faith receives Christ and with Christ there's always salvation in the flood waters.

Praying the Psalms teach us about enemies, sin, and salvation in God alone. They teach God as the “rock” and “refuge,” a “strong habitation” for sinners needing help. We forget these things and seek other fortifications that prove to be on foundations of sand. But times of despair don't overthrow the divine Word. Suffering doesn't overcome Jesus' promise to save, deliver, rescue, and bring to calm waters and green pastures. Another reason for praying the Psalms is they teach perseverance. They teach holding onto the Word of God when everything is failing, crumbling, and the waters are up to the neck. The Psalms exemplify faith surviving the storms from saints crying to the God Who promises to hear His children.

May God help us to pray, rid us of fear, and set our eyes on Him when trouble comes. Light shines in the darkness with the words “IN You, O LORD, I put my trust; Let me never be put to shame.”
