"Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus"

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING FOUR – LSB page 203
+ In Nomine Jesu +

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Genesis 45:3-15

³Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph; does my father still live?” But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence. ⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come near to me.” So they came near. Then he said: “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. ⁶For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. ⁷And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. ⁸So now it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁹“Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph: “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry. ¹⁰You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children’s children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹There I will provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine.” ’ ¹²“And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that speaks to you. ¹³So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my father down here.” ¹⁴Then he fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. ¹⁵Moreover he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

THE EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 15:21-26, 30-42

²¹For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. ²²For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. ²³But each one in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ’s at His coming. ²⁴Then comes the end, when He delivers the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For He must reign till He has put all enemies under His feet. ²⁶The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. ³⁰And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour? ³¹I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. ³²If, in the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!” ³³ Do not be deceived: “Evil company corrupts good habits.” ³⁴ Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; for some do not have the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame ³⁵ But someone will say, “How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?” ³⁶ Foolish one, what you sow is not made alive unless it dies. ³⁷ And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain—perhaps wheat or some other grain. ³⁸ But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰ There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. ⁴¹ There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. ⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 6:27-38

²⁷ “But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. ²⁹ To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. ³¹ And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. ³² “But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. ³³ And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. ³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. ³⁵ But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil. ³⁶ Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful. ³⁷ “Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you.”

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

We extend our sincere Christian sympathy to the family of Laura Raitz who passed away on February 17. Laura was Mindy Craig’s grandmother and had been homebound for many years. Pastor Holzer visited her regularly at her home and then at the nursing home. There was a Graveside service on Saturday, February 22. Please keep Laura’s family in your prayers.

We rejoice today as we welcome The Zenns family, Nick, Sarah, Nicky, Lila, Avery & ZoeyAnne into membership of Grace.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

From Nelson Haertling: “Thank you for all your prayers and well wishes while I was in the hospital. I am back at home doing physical therapy.”

Reminder: Please DO NOT take any food or drinks into the Sanctuary. Thank you

Thrivent Member Reminder: Thrivent Choice Dollars for 2024 need to be directed by March 31st.

Men's Bible Breakfast is held on Tuesdays at 6:00 a.m. in the Parlor. Joe Green is responsible for breakfast this week. Men of the congregation who would be interested in joining the group are encouraged to attend.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Luke 6:30–31 – “Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.” Is it really possible to live like this? Would it really work to be so open-handed and generous? Our conscience often reminds us of our failures, and the Lord knows our frailty, that's for sure! But a life of faith is a life lived in imitation of Jesus — and every follower of Jesus knows that yes, indeed, it is better to give than to receive.

You Have a Place at Grace

“Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord” (1 Cor. 11:27).

At least one translation reads “guilty of profaning [enoxos] the body and blood of the Lord.” This is an interesting take on the term enoxos, a word whose base meaning is “guilty.” But there’s defensible reasons for it. In the Old Testament profanation occurs against the holiness of God, with the term “profane” occurring more than thirty times. A prime example is in the case of Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu who offer “profane” fire to God and pay with their lives (Leviticus 10:1-7). At their death God reminds Aaron “by those who come near Me I must be regarded as holy; And before all the people I must be glorified.”

God gives more than mere symbols of His love. He gives us Himself. Holy objects exist all over the Old Testament; hence the reason some scholars call the OT sacramental. It is in the sense we find objects made holy by the Word of God (i.e., the Tent of Meeting, sacrifices, the Ark of the Covenant, priestly garments, the Temple, et al.). Yet the term “sacrament” in the Lutheran Confessions gets a specific definition to mean an element attached to God’s Word with the explicit promise of sins forgiven (Holy Baptism and the Lord’s Supper). The Lord’s Supper is certainly holy, for God Himself comes to us in bread and wine we confess to be His Body and Blood for the forgiveness of sins.

Back to the term enoxos. Two usages of this term stand out. One, in Leviticus 20, a place where severe sins warrant the death penalty, the phrase “his blood is upon him” falls under the Greek term enoxos. In the NT the one who blasphemes the Holy Spirit is “guilty [enoxos] of an eternal sin” (Mark 3:29). Paul’s use of the term falls in line with the Lord’s Supper being something holy. It’s the Holy God Himself coming into the mouths of people who receive it regardless of faith. That is to say, at the Altar one receives what God says. Our faith doesn’t create something holy. That’s God’s work and domain, and it’s necessary we approach His holiness in the manner He prescribes on His terms, not ours.

Leviticus 15:31 reads “thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that is among them.” Seeing the Lord’s Supper in light of the OT and believing Jesus’ words “this is My Body...this is My blood” makes closed communion a logical, even preferred practice to safeguard people from unworthily encountering God and thus profaning something holy. The OT priest and NT pastor have something in common, then, which is the task of caring for people by protecting them from doing anything to their spiritual detriment.

The Church’s desire is for sinners having Christ and receive Christ in faith, the faith following repentance for sins He has washed by His blood to make us His holy people destined for that Resurrection of the body and life in heaven before the Bread of Life Himself: Jesus.
