WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING ONE – LSB page 151

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Jeremiah 17:5-8

<sup>5</sup> Thus says the Lord:

“Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes flesh his strength,
Whose heart departs from the Lord.

<sup>6</sup> For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,
And shall not see when good comes,
But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
In a salt land which is not inhabited.

<sup>7</sup> “Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord,
And whose hope is the Lord.

<sup>8</sup> For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not fear when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

THE EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 15:12-20

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen. <sup>14</sup> And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty. <sup>15</sup> Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up— if in fact the dead do not rise. <sup>16</sup> For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen. <sup>17</sup> And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins! <sup>18</sup> Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable. <sup>20</sup> But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 6:17-26

<sup>17</sup> And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, <sup>18</sup> as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed. <sup>19</sup> And the whole multitude sought to touch Him, for power went out from Him and healed them all.

<sup>20</sup> Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

“Blessed are you poor,
For yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
For you shall laugh.

<sup>22</sup> Blessed are you when men hate you,
And when they exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man’s sake.

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> “But woe to you who are rich,
For you have received your consolation.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
Woe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> Woe to you when <sup>1</sup>all men speak well of you,
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

We extend our sincere Christian sympathy to the following families:

- ❖ Dixie, Casey & Teresa Voskamp and family upon the death of Lynnette Voscamp, Dixie’s sister-in-law and Casey’s aunt. Lynnette passed away on Tuesday, February 11.
- ❖ Reese & Janette Wawarosky and family upon the death of Tobyann Gace Turley, Janette’s cousin. Tobyann passed away on Thursday, February 13.

Please keep both families in your prayers.

Bear Krolczyk, son of Matthew and Brittney Krolczyk will be received into the family of God by the washing of Holy Baptism during the worship service today. May the Holy Spirit keep Bear in the true faith unto the day of eternal life.

We Rejoice Along with proud great grandmother Ruth Hemann over the birth of her new great-granddaughter, Emma Jane Schultz. Emma was born February 13, 2025. Her parents are Cody & Kelly Schultz. Mom and baby are doing fine.

Today's Radio Broadcast has been sponsored anonymously "To spread the Gospel". The Sunday broadcast can be heard at 12:30 p.m. over KWHI 1280 AM.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Luke 6:20–21 – "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you shall be satisfied." The Beatitudes are largely about emptiness: if you're poor, your pockets are empty. If you are hungry, your stomach is empty. If you are mourning, there's an emptiness in your heart that used to be filled with the presence of a loved one. Jesus assures us in each case that the Lord will fill our emptiness. That assurance gives us not only peace, but also courage to follow the Lord faithfully.

Men's Bible Breakfast is held on Tuesdays at 6:00 a.m. in the Parlor. Jimmie Maurer is responsible for breakfast this week. Men of the congregation who would be interested in joining the group are encouraged to attend.

Invitation: The ladies of the church are invited to a Come and Go Baby Shower for Baby Schuller on Sunday, February 23rd from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. in the FAC. Gift ideas include: diapers (all sizes) baby wipes, or gift cards.

Please RSVP by Wednesday, February 19th to:

Teachers Needed: Looking for ADVENTURE and/or EXCITEMENT, become a Sunday School teacher, helper or substitute. Saturday, March 29, 2025
5:00pm at the Brenham Fireman's Training Center

You Have a Place at Grace

“For he shall be like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see when good comes” (Jeremiah 17:6).

Such is Jeremiah’s description of the sinner who “trusts in man” and “makes flesh his strength.” He doesn’t see the good. So, he trusts in the bad. The problem here is one of distinction; he can’t tell the difference between good and bad, truth and error, light and darkness. Isaiah brings up the same thing in his fiery denouncement of unbelieving Israel: “woe to those who call evil good and good evil” (Isaiah 5:20). Without ability to make distinctions between God and the devil, we’re blind to sin, left to our devices, swimming in debt before God that only grows.

Jesus faced opposition in the Jews that reached a boiling point in His powerful invective against them: “Would that you, even you, had known on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes...And they will not leave one stone upon another in you, because you did not know the time of your visitation” (Luke 19:42,44). Enemies savored His death, seeing the cross as a victory over the One calling out the hypocrisy in Israel’s religious leaders and offering grace rather than more burdens too hard to bear.

Our lives confront enemies of the Church who are the shrubs in the desert blind to the good. Evil shines in exaltation while the goodness of God is shunned and abhorred. It’s nothing new and has only worsened in recent years. The gulf always existing between Christians and pagans has both widened and clarified on a cultural level, and this isn’t all bad. Firm party lines show one’s allegiance. The enemy becomes clear and lukewarm attitudes are now hot or cold in a society brazen enough to champion perversity and scorn those who don’t. Eyes that see the good see evil. We repent of our own sins and fix our eyes on the goodness of God in Jesus Who calls us out of darkness, away from the devil and demons deceiving and misleading until Jesus’ imminent return.

Now’s the time for vigilance, prayer, repentance, and faith. God forbid we forget His Word and become that shrub in the desert. Our prayer is to be awake, alive, faithful, and ready—ready at our visitation when the Good Himself comes to take His Church, restore all things, and give what He promises to His saints He raises from the dead.
