"Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus"

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING THREE – LSB page 184
+ In Nomine Jesu +

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

The Introit (Psalm 71:15-18; antiphon: Psalm 71:12)

P: O God, be not far from me;

C: O my God, make haste to help me!

P: My mouth will tell of Your righteous acts, of Your deeds of salvation all the day,

C: For their number is past my knowledge.

P: With the mighty deeds of the LORD God I will come;

C: I will remind them of Your righteousness, Yours alone.

P: O God, from my youth You have taught me,

C: And I still proclaim Your wondrous deeds.

P: So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me,

C: Until I proclaim Your might to another generation, Your power to all those to come.

P: O God, be not far from me;

C: O my God, make haste to help me!

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 6:1-8

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. ² Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³ And one cried to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!" ⁴ And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵ So I said: "Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts." ⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar. ⁷ And he touched my mouth with it, and said: "Behold, this has touched your lips; your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged." ⁸ Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."

THE EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 14:12-20

¹² Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the church that you seek to excel. ¹³ Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding. ¹⁶ Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? ¹⁷ For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified. ¹⁸ I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all; ¹⁹ yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue. ²⁰ Brethren, do not be children in understanding; however, in malice be babes, but in understanding be mature.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 5:1-11

5 So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, ² and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. ³ Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. ⁴ When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵ But Simon answered and said to Him, “Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net.” ⁶ And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. ⁷ So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸ When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!” ⁹ For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; ¹⁰ and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men.” ¹¹ So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Luke 5:5 – “And Simon answered, ‘Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.’” In Peter’s words there is both exasperation and trust. He’s tired. He tried his best and failed. But he is still ready to trust the Lord’s Word and act on it. Our stewardship is also a matter of trusting the Lord’s Word and acting on it.

The Altar Flowers are given today by Rickie & Sherell Stork in honor of their 52nd wedding anniversary and in thankfulness for their many blessings. In lieu of purchasing flowers, they will use Altar Guild flowers and make a donation to the Building Fund.

You Have a Place at Grace

“Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:27).

No shortage of churches denies biblical miracles while endorsing sexual ethics confessional Lutherans would rightly consider abominations to God. In such churches forgiveness and love are highly touted doctrines in the Name of Jesus Who just seems to accept everyone, whatever they do, under the banner of love tolerating all things without discrimination. A name for this approach is “gospel reductionism” (GR). How everything got to this point is a question worth exploring whose answer extends to before even the 19th century. It didn’t happen overnight.

In a recent Concordia Theological Journal article, Dr. David Scaer writes “Gospel reductionism is a result of a method of eighteenth-century rationalism that interpreted the miraculous events in the biblical documents as ordinary ones, allowing a core message to stay in place that God justifies sinners by the preaching of forgiveness.” Scaer’s article titled “Gospel Reductionism: Then and Now” gives the history of GR and its arrival in the states. As with most heresy, it crept in under biblical terms that sounded good to the ear, terms like “gospel,” “love,” and “forgiveness,” all connected to Jesus. Now its fruits are evident in teaching reducing everything to love and the impact of preaching on the heart put at peace under the Jesus of toleration. The inerrancy of the Bible is meaningless so long as the sinner feels the love and the only real law of value is the law of acceptance.

Rationalism catapulted reason above the Bible, thus starting the predictable trend to where we are today: women can be pastors, the Bible has no authority, and sexual immorality doesn’t really exist. Once the Bible loses the character of divine inspiration, all things are up for grabs. It’s the first domino to fall in a rapid collapse.

The danger of heresy is its employment of biblical words spun into a web catching unsuspecting people unbuckled from biblical inerrancy. The devil is deceptive, and we can’t know doctrine too well. Know what words mean and how they’re used in the Bible. The Small Catechism has for centuries been an invaluable teaching tool in the Church for the purpose of providing that firm foundation for navigating Holy Scripture. Paul preached the “whole counsel” of God and pastors today are under the same obligation.

“Preach the Word” makes no exceptions to God’s voice. May that proclamation go forth unhindered by man and may all of us have ears to hear and hearts to believe that whole counsel of God. The call doesn’t cease to live lives of true repentance turning to the One Who still holds the keys to life and death.
