“Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus”

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING THREE – LSB page 184
+ In Nomine Jesu +

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Amos 5:6-7, 10-15

“Seek the LORD and live, lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, with no one to quench it in Bethel— You who turn justice to wormwood, and lay righteousness to rest in the earth!” They hate the one who rebukes in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks uprightly. Therefore, because you tread down the poor and take grain taxes from him, though you have built houses of hewn stone, yet you shall not dwell in them; You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink wine from them. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: afflicting the just and taking bribes; Diverting the poor from justice at the gate. Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time, for it is an evil time. Seek good and not evil, that you may live; so the LORD God of hosts will be with you, as you have spoken. Hate evil, love good; establish justice in the gate. It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

THE EPISTLE LESSON

Hebrews 3:12-19

Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; but exhort one another daily, while it is called “Today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, while it is said: “Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.” For who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses? Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness? And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Mark 10:17-22

Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?” So Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not bear false witness,’ ‘Do not defraud,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother.’ ” And he answered and said to Him, “Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth.” Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing you lack: Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me.” But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

Usher Team – Steve Malek
Organist – Rev. Lee Kunkel
Altar Guild Assistants – Ruth Schoppe (Communion Ware)

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

Today is Mission Fest: Pastor Rob Paul from Memorial Lutheran School in Houston, Texas is preaching and teaching today.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

Attention Council Members: There will be a brief Council meeting today in the Church office to discuss a time-sensitive item regarding the turkey supper. We'll meet after the service before Sunday School begins.

The Altar Flowers today are given in honor of Don & Karen Voelter's 57th wedding anniversary which is tomorrow, October 14th. They are using an arrangement provided by the Altar Guild.

Today's Radio Broadcast has been sponsored anonymously "To spread the Gospel". The Sunday broadcast can be heard at 12:30 p.m. over KWHI 1280 AM.

We extend our sincere Christian sympathy to the family of Allan & Colleen Symmank. Keith Symmank, Allan's brother, passed away on Sunday October 6. Funeral arrangements are pending. Please keep the Symmank family in your prayers.

Lutheran Witness subscriptions: Members wishing to receive the Lutheran Witness magazine in 2025 are asked to turn in their subscription payment no later than TODAY October 13, 2024. The subscription amount for 2025 is $24.75. Please use the "Lutheran Witness" envelope that is in your box of Contribution Envelopes to make this payment. ADDITIONALLY, if you no longer want to receive this magazine, please call Carol in the office and let her know so we can cancel the subscription for you.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Hebrews 3:18–19 – "And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief." Unbelief leads to disobedience — that is, every sin expresses the opposite of faith. True and living faith guides us into the LORD's way and the LORD's plan. And when we fall into sin, it's because we are not trusting the LORD's goodness and provision.

The Stewardship Board reminds all members to turn in their pledges for the 2025 budget year by the end of October. Pledge forms may be found in the Narthex. They may be dropped in the House Box located in the Narthex or brought by the church office.

Men's Bible Breakfast is held on Tuesdays at 6:00 a.m. in the Parlor. Doug Schoppe is responsible for breakfast this week. Men of the congregation who would be interested in joining the group are encouraged to attend.

Free Will Door Offering for Faith Mission, our local food bank, will be taken up on October 27th. Please prayerfully consider giving to this organization committed to serving those in need within the community.

Quarterly Voters' Assembly is scheduled for Wednesday, October 30th at 7:00 p.m.

Texas Confessional Lutherans Conference is this week
Thursday October 17 at 10:30 a.m. in the Parlor.
The Topic is LCMS Communion Practice.

You Have a Place at Grace

“And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, ‘You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.’ Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions”. (Mark 10:21-22)

Most grown men don't run up to someone and kneel (Mark 10:17) before boasting with a statement like “all these I have kept from my youth” (v20). Years of combating sin dampens such unbridled enthusiasm and naivety. Thus, the subtitle is fitting that reads “the Rich Young Man.” Seeing youth in the narrative brings out a real struggle in someone endowed with physical vigor and wealth when encountering Jesus' call to forsake possessions for the Kingdom of God. You have the world on a string and Jesus tells you to leave it all. What's your move?

He's “disheartened” by Jesus' saying and leaves with much to ponder. Jesus' words have cut him to the heart, showing that despite his blustering claim to have kept the commandments from youth, he hadn't. The world was his crutch, and one can't serve two masters. It's a painful blow God deals, but necessary to deflate pride and strip reliance on treasure. Also important is Jesus' initial response to this sinner, which is “looking at him, [He] loved him.” Jesus loved this man seeking God, wanting eternal life, and concerned about his destiny—all good things. Jesus responds in love by showing his need for a Savior. “What must I do?” was the wrong question for someone trusting in his works and looking for a law-answer to a problem remedied only by the Gospel.

The disciples would ask in verse 26, “then who can be saved?” Jesus says “with man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God.” Jesus again calls us to repentance and eyes on Him. Salvation is impossible with man, even when we sell our possessions--the Law always accuses. Like the rich young man, the Law makes us sorrowful when confronting something we don't want to hear. But it's in this contrition hearts of sorrow may learn repentance, a turning from the self in faith to Christ Who does the impossible for man. He bears those sins of trusting in the wrong things. The combat continues but the Victory is at hand. Sorrow reflects those hearts plagued with guilt but in Christ confidence and courage comes forth in the promises of God echoed by the Psalmist who says, “those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy” (Ps.126:5).
