“Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus”

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE ORDER OF DIVINE SERVICE SETTING THREE – LSB page 184
+ In Nomine Jesu +

The Sacrament of the Altar will be celebrated today. Grace Lutheran practices closed communion, for God's Word teaches and we believe that communicants receive the very body and the very blood of Jesus in, with, and under the bread and wine. God's Word also teaches and we believe that one who eats and drinks while denying the real presence and the benefits and blessings of the Sacrament, eats and drinks judgment upon himself. As the Christian Church is charged with the responsibility of "stewardship of the mysteries of God," we therefore ask that all who are not communicant members of Grace Lutheran please speak with one of our Pastors before communing. Our Pastors will assist you in becoming a communicant member through instruction in all the articles of faith, give you opportunity to publicly confirm your faith, and shepherd you as a member in good standing of this congregation. Those guests who are members in good stead of a sister Missouri Synod congregation and have previously spoken to our Pastors need only sign a communion card which is located in the pew. We trust that all will respect God's Word and our practice in accordance with its teachings.

The Introit (Psalm 81:8, 10-11, 13; antiphon: Luke 3:4b)

P: The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

C: "Prepare the way of the LORD, make His paths straight."

P: Hear, O My people, while I admonish you!

C: O Israel, if you would but listen to Me!

P: I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

C: Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

P: But My people did not listen to My voice;

C: Israel would not submit to Me.

P: Oh, that My people would listen to Me,

C: That Israel would walk in My ways!

P: The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

C: "Prepare the way of the LORD, make His paths straight."

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Malachi 3:1-7b

3 “Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming, ”Says the Lord of hosts. 2 “But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire and like launderers’ soap. 3 He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness. 4 “Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the Lord, as in the days of old, As in former years. 5 And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, and against those who turn away an alien—Because they do not fear Me, ”Says the Lord of hosts. 6 “For I am the Lord, I do not change; therefore you are not consumed, O sons of Jacob. 7 Yet from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you, “Says the Lord of hosts. “But you said, ‘In what way shall we return?’

THE EPISTLE LESSON

Philippians 1:2-11

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy, 5 for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ; 7 just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ. 9 And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, 10 that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ, 11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 3:1-20

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,<sup>2</sup> while Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.<sup>3</sup> And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins,<sup>4</sup> as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying: "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord; make His paths straight.'<sup>5</sup> Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight and the rough ways smooth;<sup>6</sup> And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.' "<sup>7</sup> Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?<sup>8</sup> Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.<sup>9</sup> And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."<sup>10</sup> So the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?"<sup>11</sup> He answered and said to them, "He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise."<sup>12</sup> Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"<sup>13</sup> And he said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed for you."<sup>14</sup> Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" So he said to them, "Do not intimidate anyone or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."<sup>15</sup> Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not,<sup>16</sup> John answered, saying to all, "I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.<sup>17</sup> His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."<sup>18</sup> And with many other exhortations he preached to the people.<sup>19</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,<sup>20</sup> also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

During the Advent Season, we again see the Advent wreath decorating the sanctuary. One candle is lit each week as we prepare for the celebration of our LORD’s coming at His birth. May God bless your preparation to celebrate the birth of our Savior and LORD.

The Altar Flowers are given today by Mike & Charlotte Dahmann in celebration of our 44th wedding anniversary, thankfulness to God for our children and grandchildren and the time we had with Kirsten.

Today's Radio Broadcast is sponsored by R.D. & Ginny Morrison, in thankfulness for God's blessings on their 46th wedding anniversary. This Sunday's broadcast can be heard at 12:30p.m. over KWHI 1280 AM.

We rejoice today as we welcome David, Mikaela & Palmer Reese and Karen French into membership of Grace Lutheran.

Poinsettia Orders - The deadline to order is TODAY December 8. Members who wish to order poinsettias to be placed in church for Christmas are asked to fill out an envelope designated for this purpose. The envelopes are located on the counters in the Narthex. The cost per plant is $13.00. Please make checks payable to Grace Lutheran Altar Guild. You may place the envelope in the offering plate.

Contribution envelopes for 2025 are available for you to pick up. They are located on a table in the Narthex hallway. To avoid confusion, please do not use these envelopes until January of 2025.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Luke 3:4 – “As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.’” God makes long-range plans: Isaiah lived more than seven hundred years before St. John the Baptist preached by the Jordan River. Obviously, God sees farther into the future than we do! That's yet another reason to trust Him when it comes to how He tells us to live our lives: He knows what's coming and we don't.

REMINDER: Please DO NOT TAKE food or drinks into the Sanctuary

Practice for the Sunday School Christmas Eve Program will be held Today, Sunday 12/8/24 at 4:00 p.m. and then again on 12/15 and 12/22 in the Sanctuary. All Sunday School aged children of the congregation are encouraged to participate. Parental help and support are greatly appreciated.

You Have a Place at Grace

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God” Ephesians 2:8

It's vital Christians understand and believe the depravity of the human condition Scripture teaches. Biblical anthropology shows natural flesh as wicked and evil, rescued only by divine aid. Jeremiah would preach this in the words “the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; Who can know it?” (Jeremiah 17:9). To the Corinthians we hear “the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Cor.2:14). Jesus' words also put things in perspective: “without me you can do nothing” (John 15:5).

One historian claims that before Augustine “the anthropology of the church was exceedingly crude and indefinite,” which may be an overstatement still expressing the idea the church had yet to deeply and even adequately think through the relationship between the human will and divine grace. Augustine is one of the premier theologians of the Western church, but his theological convictions on sin and grace would be forged and sharpened in the crucible of controversy demanding an articulate response and confession on the capabilities of man before God. His opponent was one Pelagius, who argued the power of the human will to ascent to God in doing works apart from divine aid. It was the freedom of the soul to legalistic piety defining Pelagianism's expression of man capable of pleasing God apart from the Holy Spirit.

Augustine saw it differently. Hereditary sin excluded a capable will trusting God apart from the Holy Spirit. Cooperation is impossible without faith wrought by the Holy Spirit. Divine monergism means God's “one working” to bring the soul from darkness to life, something man cannot achieve. The two theologies are as different as light and darkness, life and death, which Augustine understood well. A man whose life was marked by vice prior to his conversion, the Bishop of Hippo understood depravity and death of a life struggling and failing to find contentment apart from God, and the futility in trying to access heaven without faith.

How could Pelagius miss a verse like Ephesians 2:8? What could have possibly driven him to his legalistic positions on man? It wasn't a lack of intellect. He was an austere man of self-righteousness and discipline who disdained the corrupt morals of Rome. We can agree social wickedness should be despised but the answer isn't convincing man he can do it without the Holy Spirit if he just puts his best foot forward. Augustine's theological responses to Pelagius would serve the Reformation well in the battle over the Gospel and man's responsibility to divine things. Sin blinds us all from seeing our true corruption, as we ascend in our own pride to think we're stronger and less needy than what God is saying. May God guard all of us from such wicked thinking and preserve us to trust in He Who died and rose again, Who gives us by His Spirit that bold confession we still make: “For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.”
