“Caring For People By Connecting Them With Christ Jesus”

WELCOME TO GRACE LUTHERAN as we gather for worship of our loving God, who spared not His own Son, but put Him upon the cross in payment for our sins. May all that we give and receive this day resound to His honor and glory. Members and especially GUESTS are urged to complete the registration card located in the pew rack. If you are visiting with us, we cordially invite your return. Our Pastors will be happy to speak with you.

THE PRELUDE

THE HYMN OF PRAISE “No Tramp of Soldiers’ Marching Feet” # 444

The Invocation – Confession – Absolution

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Beloved in the LORD! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our LORD, Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness. Our help is in the name of the LORD,

C: Who made heaven and earth.

P: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD,

C: And You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P: O almighty God, merciful Father

C: I, a poor miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter, sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor sinful being.

P: Upon this Your confession, I by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my LORD, Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

The Introit (Psalm 24:7-10; antiphon: Psalm 118:26)

P: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!

C: We bless you from the house of the LORD.

P: Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors,

C: That the King of glory may come in.

P: Who is this King of glory?

C: The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle

P: Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors

C: That the King of glory may come in.

P: Who is this King of glory?

C: The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory!

P: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!

C: We bless you from the house of the LORD.

The Salutation and Collect of the Day

P: The LORD be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray....one God now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Zechariah 9:9-12

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, Lowly and riding on a donkey, A colt, the foal of a donkey. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem; The battle bow shall be cut off. He shall speak peace to the nations; His dominion shall be ‘from sea to sea, And from the River to the ends of the earth.’ “As for you also, Because of the blood of your covenant, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to the stronghold, You prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.

P: This is the Word of the LORD.

C: Thanks be to God.

Philippians 2:5-11

Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is LORD, to the glory of God the Father.

P: This is the Word of the LORD.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

John 12:12-43

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. John the twelfth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O LORD!

The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out: "Hosanna! 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' The King of Israel!" Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written: "Fear not, daughter of Zion; Behold, your King is coming, Sitting on a donkey's colt." His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him. Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!" Now there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast. Then they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus. But Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified. Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain. He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor. "Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out. And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself." This He said, signifying by what death He would die. The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?" Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them. But although He had done so many signs before them, they did not believe in Him, that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke: "LORD, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?" Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again: "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, Lest they should see with their eyes, Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn, So that I should heal them.” These things Isaiah said when he saw His glory and spoke of Him. Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

P: This is the Gospel of the LORD.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

The Prayer of the Church

THE SERVICE OF THE SACRAMENT

To our guests: We are happy you are here to witness the vows of our Confirmands. The faith which they have publicly confessed acknowledges the Biblical practice of closed communion which requires that communicants be instructed in the articles of faith, publicly confirm their faith, and be members in good standing of a Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod congregation in order to partake of the Sacrament at this altar. We therefore request that only Missouri Synod Lutheran guests commune with our members in order that the confession of faith spoken by these young people here today will be upheld. It is not our desire to offend, neither do we wish to lead Christians who are not Missouri Synod Lutherans to sin against their consciences by denying their own church's public doctrine; it is however instead, our privilege and duty to uphold Scripture's injunction and confess our belief therein. Please speak with one of our Pastors if you desire to take adult instruction for communicant membership in this congregation.

The LORD's Prayer

All: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Every Pastor worth his salt seeks to know the condition of his flock. Please make sure to inform the church office of any health-related issues in need of Pastoral care.

Grace Lutheran is continuing the Church's historic practice of administering the LORD's Blood in a chalice during Holy Communion. Should you wish to receive the Blood of Christ from the chalice at the altar, simply refrain from taking the individual cup when it passes, and the cup bearer will see to give you a sip from the chalice. Feel free to assist in this process. Saints in the back of the church will still receive the LORD's gifts first and have the option of individual cups or the chalice. We also beg your patience as we wait for the second chalice to arrive sometime in March. By the grace of God, having two chalices, one for each side should improve how we administer the LORD's gifts.

It is a blessed opportunity and privilege to serve the true Body and Blood of Christ to those saints unable to approach the altar. God continues to bring such saints to Grace. Therefore, we humbly ask worshipers to consider leaving the back row open for those needing Holy Communion brought to them in the Divine Service.

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: Zechariah 9:9 – “Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.” No king ever rode to war like this. But no king had ever come to wage battle by dying. In His Passion, our LORD Jesus gives everything He has and is; He does this to bring us from death to life, to make us His own people, and show us an example of self-giving love that we should follow.

Grace Lutheran School 2024 Spring Gala

The PTL invites you to the annual Spring Gala – Light of the World! Get ready for a fun night of good food, entertainment and auctions. The money raised each year allows PTL to fund the many events and programs that GLS has throughout the school year. It also allows us to show appreciation to our dedicated teachers and staff and fund needs as they arise. Two items of priority this year are a digital scoreboard for the football field and a sun shade for the Pre-K playground.

When and Where:

Saturday, April 13, 2024

5:00pm at the Brenham Fireman's Training Center

Invitations have been delivered to church member boxes and tickets are on sale now. Tickets will be available in the school office through March 27th. We will also be selling tickets after service through Sunday, March 24th.

We are also needing items for both the live and silent auctions! Items we are looking for include: Vacation home stays, Fishing or hunting trips, Themed dinners, Sports and outdoor items, Gift cards, Electronics, Tickets to events, Goods and services, Home décor, and more!

For Auction questions, please contact:

Brittany Hartfield at 361-550-5040 or britt0711@gmail.com

Thank you for your support of the school and PTL.

We can't wait to see you at this year's Gala!

Spring Eggs Art Walk Grace Lutheran School is participating in the Spring Art Walk in downtown Brenham. The GLS Egg will be located in Alamo Alley/Visitor Center. Go by and check it out! Then be sure to vote for it at one of the sponsoring merchant locations or at the Visitor Center on Main Street. Winners will be announced on April 18.

Lutheran Adoption Conference Info: It's hard enough to navigate the adoption process. Yet, it has been further complicated by increasing unbiblical positions on the family held by many adoption agencies. Christian Life Resources, Lutherans for Life, and Lutheran Family Service have joined together to co-sponsor a distinctive, Lutheran Adoption Conference on April 10-11, 2024, at the Hyatt Regency Intercontinental Airport Hotel in Houston, TX. The conference will explore a biblical view of family and adoption with an eye toward forming a national Lutheran Adoption Council to promote and facilitate adoptions in Christian families. To learn more, visit www.LutheransAdopt.org.

Faith Lutheran School from Plano, TX will be making another tour during the week of April 13th-17th. They will be singing at Grace Lutheran Church on Monday, April 15th at 6:00pm in the sanctuary. Like last time, they will need housing. If you are interested in serving as a host family for this talented group on the 15th only, please contact Pastor Ogradowicz. It's a total of 20 people (16 youth and 4 adults). This is a wonderful opportunity to show Christian hospitality to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Looking for ADVENTURE and/or EXCITEMENT, become a Sunday school teacher, helper, or substitute. Over the last few years, the number of Sunday school students has increased and help is needed. If you are interested in helping, contact Casey Voskamp, Brian Markwardt, or Derek Poehlmann.

Be sure to mark your calendars for VBS as you make your summer plans.

Vacation Bible School is set for:

June 24 - 28, 2024
8:30am - 11:30am

All children of Grace Lutheran Sunday School, Day School and grandchildren of members are invited to attend the weeklong event.

It will be a great time for kids to grow in faith as they explore God's Word. We are asking for volunteers to help us make this VBS a wonderful experience for the children. If you feel you can help, please contact Nancy 979-277-8162 or Bev 979-277-5824. More information will follow.

May God bless our partnership in the Gospel as we lead children to Jesus.

You Have a Place At Grace

So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him: “You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.” As He also says in another place: “You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek” (Hebrews 5:5-6).

The writer of Hebrews quotes two passages from the Old Testament in connection to Christ. This isn't surprising given Jesus' words “you search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me” (John 5:39). The Old Testament Scriptures testify to Christ, with Hebrews quoting two passages from the Psalms (Psalm 2:7 and Psalm 110:4) in reference to Jesus.

Melchizedek swiftly comes and goes in Genesis 14, but his importance shouldn't be understated. The fullest treatment of this “King of Righteousness” (the meaning of the name) comes in Hebrews 7, where the writer accounts for the quick entrance and exit of this King who blessed Abraham, saying he's “without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually” (Hebrews 7:3). There's no origin story for Melchizedek in Genesis. He has neither a beginning of days nor end and is both a king and priest. He is, as Luther says, a “type of Christ.” Extra-biblical sources and traditions posit numerous possibilities on the precise identity of Melchizedek. Luther aligns with the general opinion of seeing this “King of Righteousness” as Shem, the son of Noah, saying “I am pleased with the general opinion that Melchizedek is Shem, because there was no greater patriarch at that time, especially in spiritual matters...he gained a reputation for righteousness because of his service in the church; for he taught the forgiveness of sins through the future Seed of the woman” (Luther, Genesis, vol.2, 382).

The eternal aspect of the priest Melchizedek is distinguished from the priestly order of Aaron which was no guarantor of salvation. The Law of Moses wouldn't save and thus we would need another High Priest, which would be that Seed of the woman according to the order of Melchizedek, not Levi, not Aaron, but that “King of Righteousness” described in a Christ-like manner by the writer of Hebrews. The point is to focus on Christ and His priesthood distinct from an earthly priesthood that could only foreshadow the sacrifice of Jesus' flesh. It's for this reason we can approach God's throne in confidence, knowing we are a “royal priesthood” (1 Peter 2:9) by dwelling in the High Priest Himself Who has ascended into the heavens and promises the Church lives with Him.

He is a “priest forever.” It's that “forever” the Church anticipates and has by living with faith in our great High Priest who “for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God” (Hebrews 12:2).
